4. Question and Answer Session
Clean Energy Ministerial

The Solutions Center:

- Launched under the Clean Energy Ministerial (CEM) in 2011

Clean Energy Ministerial:

- A high-level global forum to promote policies and programs that advance clean energy technology, to share lessons learned and best practices, and to encourage the transition to a global clean energy economy.

90% of clean energy investment & 75% of Global CO₂ emissions
Solutions Center: Background & Vision

- Additional funding support from Power Africa
- In-kind support from Chile
- The Solutions Center is a unique CEM initiative assisting countries in all regions of the world in strengthening clean energy policies and finance measures
- Supporting transition of clean energy markets and technologies

Country Participants to the Clean Energy Solutions Center

- Australia
- Canada
- China
- France
- India
- Indonesia
- Italy
- Mexico
- Sweden
- United Arab Emirates
- United States*

*US participation & leadership are under review.
Solutions Center: Goals and Audience

Katherine Young is the Geothermal Program Manager at the National Renewable Energy Laboratory in the U.S. She has been with NREL since 2008, working as a senior energy analyst for the National Renewable Energy Laboratory, focusing her research on geothermal exploration, improving drilling through innovative use of data and new tools, regulatory and permitting analyses, and geothermal resource reporting methodologies. Ms. Young has developed innovative tools, such as the Geothermal Reporting Protocol and Optimization Technique, GeoRePORT, the Geothermal exploration and area case histories on OpenEI a wiki-based, crowd-sourced information sharing Website; and the Regulatory and Permitting Information Desktop (RAPID) Toolkit, a collection of publicly available information about permits and regulations affecting energy and bulk transmission project development. The resource is intended to facilitate communication between project developers and agency personnel, among agencies at all jurisdictional levels, and among all project stakeholders - including the public. Ms. Young received a bachelor’s degree in geological engineering and geology from the University of Wisconsin in Madison and a masters’ degree in Geochemistry from the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor.
